

The Center for Russian, East European & Eurasian Studies, The Houston Russian Cultural Center-Our Texas, and the University of Texas Documentary Center present:

Sergei Miroshnichenko

Documentary Filmmaker

Born in the USSR:

21-Up

Monday, October 20

2:00pm

The Making of 21-Up

Film clips and discussion with the filmmaker. CMB Studio 4D, Building B, Jesse H. Jones Communication Center (Guadalupe at Dean Keeton)

7:00pm

Film Screening

Born in the USSR: 21-Up
(director's cut)

Followed by Q&A with Sergei Miroshnichenko. Geography Building, (Corner of 24th and Whitis, GRG 102)

Third in the Russian series inspired by Michael Apter's British series "7 Up," this documentary presents young people from all socio-economic levels and from disparate parts of the former Soviet Union.

Mr. Miroshnichenko teaches documentary film direction at the State Institute of Cinematography in Moscow. He is Secretary of the Russian Cinematographers Union and an Honored Artist of the Russian Federation.

For more information, please contact Allegra Azulay at 471-7782 or aazulay@mail.utexas.edu.